

I support New Jersey's Do Not Call law. I do still get calls from time to time from outside the country advertising banking specials which I request that the person please not to call!